The Ascendant

We are taking a short intermission from the planets to introduce you to an additional key part of your relationship. The Ascendant or Rising Sign is the sign that starts the 1st house of the chart. The Ascendant is one of the twelve signs with a special role serving as an ambassador. It acts as a persona or mask for an individual or a relationship. The Ascendant is the personality through which we interact with the world.

The Ascendant is the way we appear to others. It is their first impressions of us. You meet someone and he or she seems to be confident, shy, talkative, cheerful, etc. The same can be said for a couple. The two people might seem theatrical, dreamy, or businesslike.

Ascendant in Capricorn

People may see the two of you as serious and all business. You are more fun when you let your hair down and interact spontaneously. Ambition is personified in your faces. Career can be a key topic of interest. Others might marvel at your determination and focus. You act responsibly and expect this from those you know. Managing your time is an automatic response. Making decisions can be done through adopting carefully laid out strategies. Leadership positions are waiting to have your names on an office door. You can be respected for your commitment to what you promise.

The Part of Fortune

Your Sun, Moon and Ascendant can be combined or blended into a cosmic alchemy, known as the Part of Fortune. This is not a planet, but rather a reference point in the chart. The Arabian astrologers of the Middle Ages are given credit for its discovery. The Part of Fortune is said to show where we can expect to find good fortune and even luck. Do we really need to take a look at something from the long ago past, if it will serve as nothing more than a relic to hang on the wall? A translation of this ancient symbol into modern terms makes this symbol worth investigating. Why? Because it can give clues to special paths that lead to harmony and a spirit of feeling united.

Think of the Part of Fortune as the potential corridor leading to Opportunity. It is a way to read the pulse rate of the partnership, indicating ways to reach a shared sense of fulfillment.

Part of Fortune in Capricorn

People likely enjoy your fun-loving ways. If you are feeling worried or anxious, you may not like to bother others with your concerns. Be generous to each other and your hearts remain close.

Saturn

Astronomers say that if Saturn fell from the sky it is light enough to float on an ocean. Some people dread hearing about where Saturn is in their chart more than they do going to the dentist! The fortune tellers of old always painted this planet with "heavy" interpretations. They presented this planet as being a god of doom and gloom. In modern astrology, this motif denotes endurance and ambition. In mythology, Saturn was Chronos, the god of time, reflecting the wisdom that can be learned from past experiences. You could say Saturn is a "Cosmic Chiropractor", showing adjustments needing to be made along life's way. There can be frustration in repeating the same mistakes. Saturn's sign and house themes are associated with Commitment and Reality-Testing. The two of you may find clues here about how you define your relationship roles. Career drive is a Saturn hallmark. Saturn shadows are fear, rigidity and a need to be compulsively controlling. There is no longevity without partners dealing with the symbolism of this particular celestial wanderer. With a lot of practice and patience the two of you can get good in making this side of your relationship flow--honest! Saturn can become more a god of Success!

Saturn in Sagittarius

You are a couple that must stay true to your idealism. It is hard for you to commit to anything that isn't fun. People are moved by the steadfastness you show in sticking to your principles. You may even seem a little old-fashioned this way. When you decide to act on a plan it can be put into operation swiftly. There is a chance you will lose interest in ideas that don't yield quick results.

Staying focused will be difficult at times for the two of you. A tendency is to be very expansive. You dislike having your options so clearly defined that there is no breathing room. Your style is cramped by super planning types of individuals. You are a playful couple. Even your serious ambitions have a dose of humor lining them.

You can display a pragmatic philosophy about your most heartfelt issues. It is senseless to argue with each other. Your partner can probably match you word for word, and even sarcasm for sarcasm. You both want many of the same things. It's finding the smoothest routes to getting there that will take your patience and wisdom.

You can encourage each other to leap over your fears into new challenges. It is your sincerity and generosity that often warms each other's hearts. You won't have all of the answers your partner needs. But you can be a voice of support and insight that helps light the way.

Saturn in the Eleventh House

A serious sense of direction is your guiding light. You are a couple that will commit to a plan if it is clearly defined. There is an ability to be inventive in business. Authority figures can appreciate the stabilizing insights you offer. You tend to respect individuals with sound reasoning powers.

Showing indifference to your partner's emotional needs is shortsighted. You must talk issues through. Being comfortable with closeness and distance might take practice. Solitude could be needed by each of you when life is very stressful. It is your way of recharging yourselves. Your friends may see you both as protective of your space. They likely appreciate your sincere loyalty.

Professional associations could be special. Your work excellence can become widely known among your peers. Attending conferences or joining groups might be a good way to network. Receiving awards is possible for both of you.

Your being together contains an atmosphere of friendship as well as romance. Receiving support for your goals makes you feel this is a special relationship. You may like the way your partner can think progressive or in conservative terms as needed. Your connection is enlivened by creating a new goal occasionally.

Uranus

Try to visualize a maverick planet orbiting on its side, whereas the other planets sit straight up and down. Uranus! This planet was discovered in the eighteenth century, sandwiched in between the American and French Revolutions. Is it any great wonder that this planet's sign and house occupations show our individuality and innovative ideas? Experimentation. Inventiveness. These are two more themes of this exciting and trend-setting entity. What is the down side to this rebel? A tendency in exhibiting a sarcastic tongue in your everyday communication. Launching sudden irresponsible actions will not make you feel like friends. Uranus can be the source of enjoying the refreshing insights you bring to your partnership. Treat each other as equals and you are likely responding to a positive tendency embedded in this planet's symbolism.

Uranus in Pisces

You bring out the most unique romantic in one another. Escape into each other's fantasy worlds is indicated. Dreaming big is a natural tendency. Being able to accomplish a plan could be another story. It will take your most decisive sides to make the reality you want happen. When you support your partner's most cherished aspirations, you receive a special glow from their eyes. It could be that a cause will capture your most united efforts. Your statements about beauty and aesthetics illustrate the exotic.

Pluto's sign and house point to our drives for power, passion and financial gain. A desire to get to know each other on the deepest of levels can be a Pluto theme. We must let go of a part of ourselves to be in a relationship. This scares some people and seems like a fair deal to others. What we cannot face as individuals sometimes will be brought to the surface in our interactions with a partner. Pluto's shadows center around jealousy and possessiveness. This planet teaches us that letting go and trusting one another are rewarding paths. Facing the tests of Pluto together is the breakfast of champions.

Part Three: Planetary Aspects

It's time now to mention another technical side of your report. (If you don't like technical explanations, skip right to the Aspect Interpretations). You have already been introduced to the ten planets. Certain planetary pairs in your chart have a special relationship to one another due to particular angular distances separating them, known as aspects. You could almost say the two planets in an aspect travel and interact together along the same circuit. The following aspect interpretations or descriptions will be listed under five types. Two are known as the soft aspects: the sextile (60 degrees) and trine (120 degrees). These two aspects generally point to more gentle themes found in your relationship. They indicate a lower voltage of electricity and produce less friction. The planets involved in a trine or sextile are more likely to be areas where you flow together without much effort.

The more hard or intense aspects are the conjunction (0 degrees), square (90 degrees) and opposition (180 degrees). They require our understanding and will point to key ways the two of you must communicate and negotiate. Planets that are part of an intense aspect will show how you energize one another. These higher voltage aspects don't mean you want to avoid them, but more so to develop a true understanding of how to use this energy constructively. "Soft" does not mean good and "intense" does not imply bad. It is often the more intense aspects that deepen the bond of a partnership. The interpretation of any planetary aspect depends greatly on the symbolism of the two planets forming an aspect.

It might be helpful to keep some key words in mind for the aspects. The sextile is a promise of Excitement and Eagerness. The planets in this aspect give clues how your energies support one another. The trine is a special Harmony shown by two planets. There is often positive regard for one another that comes spontaneously. We expect good things to be delivered in the trine.

The conjunction is where two planets are joined at the hip. There is a Fusion or powerful blending of these two energies. The square can reveal where you will encounter Friction in your relationship. Pay special attention to these aspects, as they are opportunities for growth as much as discord. The opposition requires a Balancing act. It is similar to a seesaw. Each of you may find yourselves taking turns in acting out one planet or the other.

It might be helpful to refer to Parts One and Two to refresh your memory about the meaning of the Planets, Ascendant and Midheaven, as you read the aspects that follow. Remember that it is usually the more intense aspects that stretch us the most. The more positively you use these challenging planetary combinations the greater will be your understanding of each other.

Note that a planet might be involved in several different aspects. In other words, the planet is interfacing its energies with numerous other planets (or even with the Ascendant or Midheaven). A "heavily aspected planet" plays a key role in your relating to each other.

The Nodes of the Moon are not planets. They are a celestial polarity offering clues to your connection on the soul level. Think of it as your own "psychic friends network." If this sounds too mystical or corny, just think of the Nodes as a shared frequency level in your partnership. It doesn't mean you get psychic flashes about each other.
